

2023-24 Grants Summary

CACF 2023-24 Grants	Eligible Applicants	Application Deadline	Grant Support	Grant Amount	Notes and Contact
Ballyshannon Fund	501c3 organization or government entity working in the Central Virginia area	Letter of Intent due on February 15 of each year	Education projects and programs to promote citizen understanding of the economic importance of agricultural and forestry enterprises in the region	Varies	For more information visit: http://ballyshannonfund.com or email: fundinfo@ballyshannon.com
Bama Works	501c3 organization, governmental or religious entity, or fiscally sponsored by 501c3 organization working to benefit the city of Charlottesville and the counties of Albemarle, Buckingham, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa, Nelson or Orange	Two grant rounds each year: deadlines are February 29 and September 1	General operating and/or programmatic support	Up to $10,000	Organizations are eligible to apply once every 12 months. grants@cacfonline.org
Blue Ridge Mountains Rotary – Rabbit Run Beneficiary	501c3 organization or government agency working in Charlottesville and/or Albemarle County	Applications due in June of each year	Programmatic activities tied to the following impact areas: Peace & Conflict Resolution; Disease Prevention/Treatment; Water & Sanitation; Maternal Child & Health; Basic Education & Literacy; Economic & Community Development; Support of the Environment	Up to $10,000	Organizations may apply through a link found on the CACF website. grants@cacfonline.org
Eco-Living Fund	501c3 organization or government agency working to benefit the city of Charlottesville and the counties of Albemarle, Buckingham, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa, Nelson or Orange	Applications due in July of each year	Grants aimed at steering people's daily life habits toward zero-footprint or net-positive impact on the natural world	Up to $3,000	grants@cacfonline.org
Louisa County Community Fund	501c3 organization, governmental or religious entity, or fiscally sponsored, working to benefit Louisa County	Applications due February 29	Grants to improve the quality of life in Louisa County	Up to $10,000	One cycle per year in the spring, same application as Bama Works grants@cacfonline.org

2023-24 Grants Summary

CACF 2023-24 Grants	Eligible Applicants	Application Deadline	Grant Support	Grant Amount	Notes and Contact
PB&J Fund	501c3 organization, governmental or religious entity, or fiscally sponsored, working to benefit city of Charlottesville or Albemarle County	Applications due in September of each year	Grants to empower children and/or families through culinary and nutritional education; help improve access to affordable, healthful food for under-resourced community members	Up to $25,000 for a one-year grant, or up to $50,000 for two-year grant	Proposals from outlying counties also considered. grants@cacfonline.org
Prana Fund	501c3 organization, governmental or religious entity, or fiscally sponsored, working to benefit Albemarle County or city of Charlottesville	Applications due in October of each year	Grants to support projects that integrate environmental education and the visual arts	Up to $15,000	Organizations will primarily engage children who have traditionally experienced limited access to the arts and outdoors. grants@cacfonline.org
Solidarity Grant	501c3 organization, governmental or religious entity, or fiscally sponsored by 501c3 organizations working to benefit the city of Charlottesville and the counties of Albemarle, Buckingham, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa, Nelson or Orange. Funding will be given to Black- and/or ALAANA-led organizations, groups, or projects that focus on advancing racial equity through movement building.	Applications accepted on a rolling basis; decisions made quarterly	Potential uses include, but are not limited to: General operating, strategic planning, and project support; Advocacy, legal and direct action, and media campaigns; Sabbaticals, rest, and healing; Narrative change storytelling work; Community education, organizing, and training	Varies based on request and funding availability	Funding is for initiatives led by those most impacted by racial inequity and injustice. See our website for additional eligibility criteria. grants@cacfonline.org
Sudden & Urgent Needs	501c3 organization, governmental or religious entity, or fiscally sponsored by 501c3 organization working to benefit the city of Charlottesville and the counties of Albemarle, Buckingham, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa, Nelson or Orange	Applications accepted on a rolling basis as long as funds are available	Grants to provide flexible and immediate support to groups responding to a time-sensitive and time-limited emergency event or emerging need in our region.	Up to $10,000	Organizations may apply once per year. We define a sudden and urgent event as one that is: time bound, requires immediate attention or action, and is in response to a critical situation. grants@cacfonline.org
Twice is Nice Fund	501c3 organization, governmental or religious entity, or fiscally sponsored, working in city of Charlottesville or counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna,	Applications due in September of each year	Grants to support projects that provide services to vulnerable seniors in need	Up to $15,000	grants@cacfonline.org